

Brighton and Hove Schools, Children and Families' Inclusion Charter Have Your Say!

What 3 words say inclusion and belonging to you? As part of the Brighton and Hove SEND Strategy, we are working together with our schools, children and families to gather views and create a citywide Inclusion Charter that sets out what we all expect of each other when we talk, think and do inclusion. We are asking you and your child to follow the link or QR code below and to share your words on what inclusion is, and what inclusion is not.

Your words to describe what inclusion is and what it is not will be collected and added to our increasing collection of words from children already gathered. They will help to create the citywide school, children and families inclusion charter.
